SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1871.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

-Gold closed yesterday at 14 al42. -In New York cotton closed weak; uplands 201 cents; sales 3505 bales.

9id, Orleans 10id; sales 20,000 bales. _M'lle Christine Nilsson had a reception on board the Swedish irigate Josephine, in New York, on Tuesday.

-The grand jury in Brooklyn, N. Y., on Saturday, indicted a man for a misdemeanor in circulating cards intended to advertise him as an abortionist, and the man has been indicted and held to bail.

-M. E. Legout, a French engineer of note abroad, proposes to construct a railroad from Paris direct to Pekin, China, and estimates the cost of tunnels necessary at the modest sum of 220,000,000 francs.

-A petition, signed by the people of Heligoland, without exception, has been addressed to Emperor William, praying him to bring about the annexation of their island to Germany. What will the British old Mrs. Grundy say to this ?

-The Tennessee Immigration Association gives netice that it is prepared to furnish English female servants and Scotch skilled agricultural laborers upon prepayment of $40 passage money and a fee of $5 each to cover the expenses of the association.

-Berlin gossip relates that in his youth Emperor William was very much in love with Sontag, the celebrated cantatrice, and that it was with great difficulty that his father, Frederick William III, could dissuade him from his declared purpose to marry her.

-Signor Tamberlik, a good opera singer, who is at present performing in the City of Mexico, was recently called before the curtain twenty times, and received three thousand bouquets. After the performance was over his carriage was dragged to his hotel by the populace.

...The once beautiful Carlotta, widow of the Archduke Maximilian, of Austria, is no longer | ties in the up-country. And why? Because her face is covered with unhealthy eruptions. Her physicians have officially announced, it is said, that she cannot live for many months.

-It is the New York World that says: "As the English holders of the Confederate cotton bonds are organizing to present their claims to the commission of arbitration, it would be proper to offer the Fenian bonds as an offset, the mulishness of England having been the principal obstacle to their attaining a par

-An unusually large number of ladies at tended the first autumnal meeting of Sorosis. in New York, on Monday, and brought all the freshness of the country back with them to brighten the occasion. After lunch, and the mild glass of pink-tinted lemonade, which may cheer, but certainly cannot inebriate, the usual business was transacted.

English woman, climbed the famous Matter horn, over 14,700 feet high, in company with her lather, aged sixty-five. The Matterhorn is one of the most difficult of all the Alpine peaks to ascend, and has rarely been attempted by a woman. The lady is well named, having climbed Monts Blanc, Rossa and other peaks with little fatigue.

-The Chicago Common Council has drafted an ordinance that all bread, &c., shall be stamped with the initials of the maker's name and with the figures indicating its weight; and the selling of bread, &c., not thus stamped will subject the maker to a fine of ten dollars and the cost of prosecution. Another section imposes a fine of twenty dollars fo any adulteration of bread.

-The Prince de Joinville, in refusing the candidature for the Presidency of France, said: "But if I were King, I should know how to govern well. The means are very simple. I would have a constitution of two articles: the first article should enact that every Frenchman should be a functionary; the second that every Frenchman, on reaching the age of five, should be decorated."

-A Berlin letter of September 20 says The settlement of the indemnification for damage done by the sleges of Alsace and Lorraine is rapidly progressing. Thionville will receive, 2,566,842 francs; Bitsche, nearly the same sum; Phalzbourg, 1,256,075 france; Marsal, 25,157 francs; and the villages round Metz. 3,613,194 francs-in round numbers, ten millions, in addition to the large amount which | contained in the presentment of the Grand has already been allotted to Strasbourg. About a quarter of this sum has already been paid into the respective communal treasuries. The disbursements are made according as the reconstruction of the destroyed buildings is pro-

-One Don Julio Berrant, a Brazilian gentleman, comes to the surface with something to say concerning the claimant to the Tichborne estate. He states that he travelled with the original Roger Tichborne from Lima to Rio Janeiro just before Roger took passage from the latter city for New York in the steamer Bella, which vessel was lost, with all aboard, on the voyage. Senor Berrant thinks that the present mountainous claimant is an imposter, and it is very probable that next November, when the Tichborne case will again come before the courts, he will be present to testify as to his recollection of the lost Sir Roger. The present claimant does not deny that the missing Tichborne took passage on the Bella. This fact, on the contrary, he acknowledges, at the same time that he insists that on the occasion of the wreck of the vessel he was saved by a passing ship, which took him to Australia, where he lay perdu, until a few years ago, in the guise of a butcher and ... In a former issue we have mentioned the result of the investigations which are at present in progress in London to ascertain the modus operandi of the baking establishments of that vast city, and their effect upon the health of those engaged in the business. These have since been followed up by careful examinations of the product of the bakeries, which have disclosed the fact that various chemicals. highly injurious to the human system, are frequently made use of in producing white bread from damaged flour. So far as can be ascertained, alum, sulphate of copper, &c., is chief-made in the cities of New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City, where, it is estimated, seventeen hundred barrels of flour are daily required to produce bread for their aggregate population of 1,400,000 souls. The whole number of bakers in these cities is 1364; but many of them do a very small business. The great bakeries employ many men in the daily production of bread and crackers, and one of them consumes three hundred and seventyfive barrels of flour per week. Although a pound of flour in the New York baker's hands is made to go a remarkably long way, because he puffs it up and manipulates it in such a manner as to leave out at least one-quarter of the nutrition that is contained in a home-made loaf of the same size as his, the product has not been found to contain any of the dangerous poisons which are found in the London bread. The average quality of the bread of New York and surrounding cities is as good as could be expected from the quality of flour used, the bulk of which, in the smailer bakeries, is seldom damaged, although of an inferior grade.

"Ye Hypocrites!"

Governor Scott and Mr. Speaker Muses, who have entered into an unholy alliance for the purpose of making the next session of the United States Court, in Columbia, In Liverpool cotton closed strong; uplands "as memorable to the midnight assassins as "was the late session of the court presided over by Judge Bond, in Raleigh," seek to justify their conduct by the assertion that the State courts neglect to try and punish offenders, and that, unless the Ku-Klux are arrested by the United States troops, and convicted before a United States Judge, they will not be dealt with as severely as they deserve. We have already given our reasons for believing that what are called "Ku-Klux outrages," in South Carolina, are either fabrications or gross perversions of the truth. We have shown that all the most noteworthy "outrages" published in the administration organ, the Columbia Union, were either the work of Radical negroes, or had their origin in the fertile brains of unscrupulous correspondents. But we are willing to admit, for the sake of argument, that acts of violence have been committed which require investigation by the courts. We stand ready to sustain, as public opinion will sustain, the judges and the juries, in the State courts, who shall impartially try any of the so-called Ku-Klux who may be brought before them. We go further, and demand that the county solicitors be removed if they are neglectful in the discharge of their official duties. But we still declare that the State courts, in the counties where Scott and Moses desire to declare martial law, cannot try any criminal, whether a Ku-Klux or a common thief. The State courts are not organized, and cannot be organized, in the most "disturbed" counelected county officers, without whom no petit juries can be drawn-without whom no criminal cases can be heard. The Governor of the State makes it impossible for the State courts to try the "midnight assassins," and, because they do not try them, accuses judges of pusillanimity, and juries of violating their oath. Here is the proof!

The County Commi cioners, under the State laws, have the caffre control of the affairs of the counties. In the words of the presentment of the Grand Jury of Newberry Newberry Herald:

"Without a Board of County Commissioners there can be no county government; no pelit jurors can be drawn, that causes may be tried isual business was transacted.

—Very recently, Martha Walker, a young jurors that causes may be tried; no authority jurors that causes may be tried; no authority to have roads worked; no authority to hav bridges built."

There were vacancies in the Board of County Commissioners for Union County and Governor Scott ordered a special election. The people elected commissioners to unquestionably legal in both form and substance. But Governor Scott withholds their commissions from the officers elect, and it is said that he now intends to ignore the elections and appoint men who will suit him and his party. In consequence of Governor Scott's inaction, no court has been held in Union County this year. And for this reason alone are United States soldiers required to hunt down decrepit old men and beardless boys whose lives may be sworn away in accordance with "the measures" which Governor Scott boasts that he has taken. The case of Newberry County is more flagrant, if possible, than that of Union. At the last term of the court for Newberry County, two of the three County Commissioners were convicted of crime in office; the third fled. An election was held on the 8th day of August Mr. Wm. Lester were elected by a large majority, but they have not received their commissions, and the public business of the county is at a stand still. These facts are Jury of the county, which also contains a letter from Mr. O. L. Schumpert, who went to Columbia to endeavor to obtain the commissions. This gentleman says: "I went to Columbia on Wednesday, the 6th inst., and found that the Board of State Can-vasers had failed to pass upon the returns of the election lately held in our county for Counthe chairman of said Beard, the great importance of commissioning the commissioners a once; that it was necessary that the Board of County Commissioners should be organized, in order to complete the Board of Jury Commissioners for the county, and have the petit jurors drawn for the ensuing term of the court, and that the general interests of the county demanded it. After no little effort the Secretary of State succeeded in securing the presence of three others of the Board of State Capassers in the city—the comptroller-general Canvassers in the city-the comptroller-gene Canvassers in the city—the comptroller-general, adjutant and inspector general, and State auditor—who, with himself, constituted a quorum. These were all duly summoned to attend a meeting of the Board in the office of the Secretary of State, at 6 o'clock P. M., on the 8th instant. The comptroller-general (Neagle) and the adjutant and inspector general (Moses) refused to do so; the former alleging as his objection that Ku Klux influence caused the commissioners to resign: the latter not stating his objection, but affirming that he would do so in writing if necessary. It was impossible to secure the attendance of the other members of the Board, as they were absent from the State, as I was informed. Thus the action of the omptroller-general and adjutant and inspector general made further effort useless, and I returned home, I feel it my duty to say that Governor Scott, the Secretary of State and Hon. Montgomery Moses, rendered me great assistance in the matter."

Mr. Comptroller Neagle displayed his true colors, in alleging that Ku-Klux influence approved collaterals and against merchandise caused the ex-commissioners to resign. What he told Mr. Schumpert puts him in the same category with Governor Scott, General Worthington, and the other worly employed for that purpose. These disclos- thies who are preparing for the "bloody as-ures have caused similar investigations to be "sizes" in November. Mr. Adjutant Moses who is also Speaker of the House of Representatives, was ready to give, in writing, his reasons for refusing to canvass the election. This is not necessary, inasmuch as he gave his reasons verbally in the Radical council, where he lauded Scott to the skies and vehemently denounced the officials of the United States Court. We do not overlook the statement that Governor Scott rendered Mr. Schumpert great assistance. Nor do we forget his conversation with General Wade Hampton: nor his promises to the Taxpayers' Convention. Governor Scott was as much in earnest in one case as in the other. Just at this time, it is safer to judge the intentions of the Radical Triumvirate by what Neagle and Moses actually do, than by what Scott himself condescends to say.

It is evident that the counties of Union and Newberry are without courts in which offenders may be tried, only because Governor Scott and Messrs. Moses and Neagle prevent the issuing of commissions to the legally elected county commissioners. As late as last January Governor Scott, in a message to the Legislature, which was then in a state of ebullition caused by the killing of some negroes-charged with murder-in Union County, made use of these words:

"It is my opinion that the civil law of the "It is my opinion that the civil law of the State ought to be sufficient, and it is my determination that it shail be sufficient, to protect the person and property of every and any citizen of the State. * * I am bound by my oath of office as the Executive of this State, and in reverance of those principles of constitutional liberty, which are the vital force of true Republicanism, to see that the law is duly worked before I resent to other and danger. inforced before I resort to other and danger ous powers. I dare not, and will not, assume that justice cannot be administered, until the effort has been made and the failure evident. Governor Scott cannot deny that these were his solemn declarations only a few months ago. He said that it was his determination that "the State courts" should be sufficient to protect every citizen; yet he ignores the State courts in Spartanburg and York and Kershaw. He solemnly said that he would see that the law was "duly en-'forced" before he resorted to other powers; yet he barks on the Federal officials to arrest suspected persons under the Ku-Klux law, without having ventured to accuse the State courts of incompetency, and without using the remedies of suspension or removal, which would enable him, if he desired, to replace a weak official by one of vigor and force. Vowing that all the cases of violence which had occurred were "within "the regular jurisdiction of the criminal 'courts of the county," he refuses the Counties of Newberry and Union the means of organizing those courts; doing this that he may make political capital under the operations of the Ku-Klux bill.

We desire to treat Governor Scott with fairness, and we would not, on any account, wittingly do him an injustice. But we are forced to believe that he does not, at Leart, beardful. Her personal appearance has be- the State officials, with Governor Scott at desire peace and tranquillity, and that he is come repulsive. She has become obese, and their head, refuse to commission the legally, busily engaged in fomenting discord and strife. Happily for us, Governor Scott may be on the other tack to-morrow. It is about time that our Protean Governor avowed himself, once more, the friend of public virtue and the foe of public vice.

fiostetter's Bitters.

THE WARNING HAS BEEN HEEDED .- Since the exposure of the attempt made by certain unscrupulous local dealers, to palm of their coarse astr.ngen:s, made from cheap and impure materials, in the place of the County, published in the last issue of the great national tolic, HOSTLITER'S STOMACH BITTER-, public opinion has set strongly against these empiries and their preparations. Their occapation is gone, or soon will be. When the light is let into deception it soon wilts down. Persons who tride wi h their own health, by using unknown preparations, with no guarantee to sus tain them, when an established specific, proven by twenty years experience to be exactly what it to claimed to be, is within their reach, is sure to repent their teme:i'y. Many have done so in this ins ance, but it is hoped that the truth plainly spoken has arrested the evil. In the meantime the demand for the leading protective and restofill the vacant offices, and the elections were rative medicine of America was never so great as t has been this season. From the fever and a ne districts of the west, southwest and south, it is literally overwhelming, and it may be said of the advices from all parts of the country of the cures it is effecting in dyspepsia, bi'lo s complaints and chronic constipation, that "their name is legion." Everywhere the sick and fe ble seem to have realized the importance of "holding fast that which is good," and of avoiding what is spurious oct7-stuth3p&c and dangerous.

URSULINE INSTITUTE

STATLE CRUCIS " NEAR COLUMBIA, S. C.

The ladies of the Ursuline Community, S. C., respectfully announce to their friends, and to the public, that the annual exercises of the Academy will commence September 1st. Their Institute, being devoted to the education of youth, au i each member having received a long and care ultraining for that purpose, the schools under their charge, as well in the various countries of Europe as in America, have never lailed to win and retain the confidence of Jarents and guardians.

Nothing will be left undone in imparting to the pupils confided to their care a thorough education, in the highest sense of the word—not alone instructing the intellect, but with maternal care ion, in the highest sense of the word—not accessinstructing the intellect, but with maternal care building an I training the heart.

The situation of the Convent is all that can be desired for health and beauty. The buildings are on elevated ground, about two miles from the Capital, and in the midst of an oak grove of twenty acres. It is within half an hour's drive from the depot, where omnibuses and baggage wagons await the arrival of passengers.

No distinction of religion will be made in the admission of pupils, nor will any undue influence be used over their religious principles; but, for the maintenance of good order, all will be required to attend the exercises of Divine worship prescribed for the Academy.
